AN ASTONISHING RECORD.

When Judge Pierson spoke here last week, presenting astounding proofs of the reckless extravagance of Governor Ferguson's administration, he stated that anyone who desired to do so could secure a copy of these proofs, compiled from the records at Austin.
In order that the people of Panoia County might have the opportunity to inspect the editor of the Register sent for a certified copy and anyone who desires to see it can have the privilege by calling at the Register office. It contains certified copies of forty-four accounts sworn to or approved by the governor and paid by the comptroller out of the people's money. For convenience these ac-counts are numbered. Following is a summary:No. 1 is the expense account of the governor on his trip to New York to confer with the outlawed insurance companies in regard to the Gibson bill. It foots up $260.29. No. 2 is the expense account of C. C. McDonald, assistant attorney general, who accompanied the governor to New York.
His bill is $251.00, which added to the governor's account, makes a total of $511.29.No. 3 is the expense account of W.
T. Potter, secretary of the board of engineers, on a trip to the Panama exposition. He visited Salt Lake, Grand Canyon, Denver and other pleasure resorts and spent $131.20.No. 4 is a copy of the pay roll of the governor's household and shows that, in addition to salaries authorized by law, the "social secretary," chauffeur, house girl, cook, yard man and wash woman were paid out of the people's money.No. 5 is a report of the fish and oyster commission, and shows that $1,782.50 was paid for two automobiles, after the attorney general had ruled that there was no authority of law for the purchase.No. 6 shows that in the purchase of the State farms somebody got a rake-off of $50,000.Nos. 7 to 25 are bills for fruits, vegetables, automobile fixtures, groceries, meats, butter, cream, eggs, oats, bran, hay, bread, cakes, candles petroleum, etc., to be paid out of the appropriation of $2,000 for fuel, lights and incidentals, which went into effect in September and was exhausted in May, consequently they are running on a deficiency and the next legislature will be asked for an appropriation to cover it.No. 41 is for the salary of W. H.
Craddock for the month of January, 1916. He is paid $150 a month as the governor's "personal representative," a position that has no authority of law.
In Austin he is known as "the deputy governor."No. 43 is the expense account of Sam H. Dixon and wife to the Panama Exposition. On this junketing tour they spent $169.95 of the people's money.No. 44 is the expense account of the State labor commissioner for one month and five days, showing hotel and restaurant bills amounting to $196.00.That these expenditures are plainly in violation of the constitution of Texas and that the legislature transcends its authority when it makes appropriations for such purposes, is plainly stated by Chief Justice W. S.
Fly of the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals.Colonel Roosevelt has tearfully handed to the executive committee of the progressive party his declination of the honor offered him by the party to make him its standard bearer for the presidency. He urged in his declination the support of Hughes by the progressives and his counsel was accepted and the executive committee now calls on all progressives to rally to the support of Hughes. The Bull Moose is now dead and the G. O. P. elephant will die on November 7. The Eagle moves that the body of the Bull Moose lie in state until that time when a double funeral shall be held for the twain and they be given Christian burial.We suppose old Carranza is in Mexico City awaiting patiently an apology from this country the retrocession of Texas and other Western States and a check for $100,000,000 indemnity.
And if he frowns at us and growls once or twice, maybe he will get them.—Houston Post.Your inference is the Mexicans have our Uncle Woodrow queered. We own up that he has been exceeding slow to wrath, but our opinion still is, that when he gets his troops properly placed, he will strike with a fury that will make Sampson's wielding of the jaw-bone of an ass look like thirty cents.The Houston Post says by the end of 1917 all the money of the country will have been absorbed by "donations to Billy Sunday and Charlie Chaplin's salary." There'll have to be a little left in Texas to pay the salaries of the patriots who are administering the permanent warehouse law.There will be no mediation offered at this time by the South American republics to settle the differences between the United States and Mexico.
The matter has advanced to that point where Carranza must come clean and come quick, or somebody will get the living daylight shot out of them.Hundreds of troop trains from all over the country are now flying as fast as steam can carry them with their noses pointed toward the Mexican border.We have not been favored with a late inventory, but doubtless our stock of ultimatums is running lowTry this on the hottest daysA cold shower, a clean shave, fresh linen and a "Cool Cloth" suit—you'll wonder where all the breeze comes from.

He's got dat exclamatory rheuma-

LITTLE JOHN OLIVER COVEY.

At 6:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon an angel of the Lord caught up the spirit of little John Oliver Covey, baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Covey, and the fair little flower of earth was translated to the home above to bloom forever in the gardens of Paradise.For several weeks the baby had been ill, the greater part of the time his little life seemed to hang by a tiny thread, and through the long days and nights the sleepless vigils of father, mother and other loved ones never ceased and every tender care that could possibly be bestowed, was given the little sufferer. Death came at last to end his sufferings, and with him went the light and joy of this happy home, and sorrow and grief unspeakable came to dwell upon its hearthstone. God only can speak the healing word, and to Him the heartbroken parents are directed for consolation in this their dark, dark hour.The baby was born July 6, 1914, and was 1 year, 11 months and 20 days of age at the time of its death. The funeral was held from the family home this afternoon at 4:30, Rev. C. T. Tally, pastor of the First Methodist Church, conducting the services.

FROM MINTER SPRINGS.

I am sending you some cotton bolls from Mr. G. W. Warren's field. I went all over his crop today and found extra good conditions prevailing. This is an upland crop, promising a yield of at least 35 bushels of corn per acre.
Corn is now in full roasting ear and cotton is good. Garden vegetables, pumpkins and peas are luxuriant.I also gave myself the pleasure of inspecting some of the Burleson County crops within the past few days. That of Mr. William Ettle is especially fine. He has 200 acres and has cotton which bids fair to yield a bale to the acre, and 50 acres of corn which looks good for 50 or 60 bushels per acre. There are plenty of vegetables; the onions deserve special mention, being extra large. Tomatoes are also very fine. There are pumpkins and cushaws in abundance and plenty of fat hogs to make meat for the farm another year. I told Mr.
Ettle he ought to get married, but he blushed and said he was too old.All crops are promising and, with the work on the road progressing fast, it will not take long to go and come from market when all these things are ready for the mill. Our county officials and promoters of the good road work will receive warm congratulations and highest praise when conditions now being worked for are completed.Recently I visited Somerville, a little town of perhaps 5000 people.
Among the 5000 I also found some old friends, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McCoy.
Mr. McCoy has a fine car and we were given an opportunity to view the city and some of the surrounding country.
The creosote plant is very interesting and keeps several hundred men employed. I suppose there was a million dollars worth of stock on the yards.
Somerville has a nice two-story brick school building and good churches.On my return home I found one of the friends of long ago, Mr. S. B.
Gleason. We were schoolmates in old Mississippi when we were boys. Mr.
Gleason has a fine farm highly cultivated. He is out of the way of overflowing rivers and his barn hold plenty of last year's corn, Sudan hay and feterita grown on his own farm. At dinner there was the luscious old-fashioned home cured hams and jel-I have just secured agency of the giant of the Southwest

H. F. STASNEY ANNOUNCES.

Mr. H. F. Stasney requests The Eagle to announce his candidacy for the office of commissioner of Predict No. 1, subject to the action of the July democratic primary. Mr.
Stasney was reared in the vicinity of the A. & M. College, the precinct in which he is a candidate and is well and favorably known to all the voters.
He attended the common schools of his home community and later was a student in the A. & M. College. His education, and his long residence in the precinct, which gives him an intimate knowledge of all its affairs and its needs, will fit him for the duties of the office he seeks. Mr. Stasney was formerly a member of the commissioners' court and filled the office with credit to himself and satisfaction to his constituents. The experience gained during his official term will be of material benefit to him now should he be elected.Mr. Stasney is one of the county's industrious, hard working farmers, understands the needs of the farmers and believes himself capable of rendering valuable service in helping tomanage the business affairs of the county. His friends also believe in his ability to make a good commissioner and it is at their earnest solicitation he is making the race.He believes in good roads, good bridges and progress all along the line, yet is conservative and does not believe in extravagance and wastefulness. If elected he promises a faithful and efficient administration.The Eagle commends Mr. Stasney and his candidacy to the consideration of the voters of Precinct No. 1.

PARTY VISITS GALVESTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Strickland, Miss Addie Walthal and Mr. George Stephens returned last night from Galveston where they had been since Saturday enjoying the surf bathing and other amusements that are offered in the Island City. The party reports a most delightful time, the trip being made in an automobile.

PICNIC AT CEDAR CREEK.

Extensive plans have been laid for the annual picnic at Cedar Creek on July 4. This is an annual affair and the largest crowd that has ever been present on this enjoyable occasion is expected to be on hand on the Fourth.
All the county and precinct candidates have been invited to speak, baseball games have been matched and lots of other amusements have been arranged for. Everybody is invited and the committee in charge hopes that you will be there.Our Big June SaleWill positively close Saturday night. There are hundreds of BAR-GAINS in all departments going at prices far below their value.
If you don't need merchandise now, a few dollars will prove a money saving investment for your future use.COME EVERY DAY!While this most extraordinary opportunity is available and supply
